House of Mercy Recordings Presents...

★ The First Friday Showcase ★

★ Showcase, Friday, April 1st 7 – 9PM at Ginkgo Coffee in St. Paul ★

House of Mercy Recordings has now released 25 recordings—from Charlie Parr to the House of Mercy Band to Molly Maher to the Urban Hillbilly Quartet...and many others—and we've decided to start a regular showcase for our artists. The first Friday of each month we'll gather at Ginkgo Coffee in St. Paul to hear some of the artists whose music we love and have released.

This month we'll be hearing from:

Chris Larson & Angie Talle of the House of Mercy Band

- Fresh off their performance at the Fitzgerald Theater at Kevin Kling's "Scarecrow on Fire" performance, Chris and Angie will be singing new and old songs from The House of Mercy Band's repertoire.

Jon Rodine

- Soulful, honest, hard-working piano man, Jon Rodine is a West Bank and Twin Cities music fixture. Expect to be lifted off this earth for awhile while listening to his beautiful voice.

Brett Larson

- If there were real justice in the music industry, Brett Larson's songs would be as well known as Willie Nelson's. Brett's songs are funny, cutting, honest and always relevant. He's been in semi-retirement from music lately, and we're happy to have him back on the stage!
